TWIN CITY LAB

Call for Application

Twin City BarCamp
Minsk // 26 – 29 Sept 2019

The Twin City Lab is going to host a BarCamp in Minsk from Sep 26 - 29, 2019.
Be part of the movement. Apply now.

With our TwinCity-BarCamp we like to
… connect creators and makers
… collect and share best practice as well as fuck-up-experiences
… enable you to think big
… develop new ideas
… engage people and communities in twinning cities
… create new formats of interaction, exchange and intercultural learning

Our TwinCity-BarCamp centers around your knowledge, experience, ideas, and interests. This means:
▶ There is no pre-scheduled programme.
▶ All participants are invited to pitch their topics to create the programme.
▶ Not familiar with BarCamps? Go to www.twincitylab.net/barcamp-faq

Participation:
You can apply for the BarCamp, if you
- are involved in exciting projects and activities in the context of twinning cities or city-partnerships or have inspiring ideas
- know the challenges of building strong connections between people and cities
- are living in Belarus, Germany, Russia or Ukraine
- have strong interest in developing new ways of linking people from twinning cities
- are able to speak English or Russian as first or second language
- eager to contribute vivid sessions to an interactive event format

Cost coverage
The following costs will be covered
- International / national return tickets (to and from Minsk)
- Public Transport for barcamp purposes
- Entrance fees/costs for excursions
- Accommodation and catering during the BarCamp
